PRESIDENT'S REPORT

If you have not already heard, our Local 893 website has been updated. You can sign up to receive the Rank-N-File by email. Thank you to Jason Helton, Dustin Brown, and Billie Rice for all of their work on this project.

I was able to attend the Iowa Federation of Labor legislative conference at the beginning of the month. We made a visit to the State House and viewed both the House and Senate in session. We were able to lobby on unemployment bills, school voucher bills, and tax bills.

Talks with Unit 3 and Lydall reconvened this week. We will have more information in the future.

We will cancel our April Amalgamated Rank-N-File meeting due to it falling on Easter weekend.

Have a Happy St. Patrick's Day and be safe!
In solidarity,
Jim Chance

2021 Reports to The Membership

Veterans Committee

Jayson Mull, Chairperson

It was a tough year last year with the corona. We weren't allowed to do a lot of the things we normally do at the Iowa Veterans Home.

In May, we were able to put flags up for Memorial Day at Riverside Cemetery. We put up over 100 flags and tags and Riverside was very grateful.

In June, it was Iowa Vets Day at the Iowa Veterans Home. Normally we would cook and serve the residents, but with Covid we were only allowed to cook for them. It was still a very good time with other locals from Region 4 coming and helping also.

We had our first t-shirt sale in quite a while last year also. The sales for these were fantastic and we would like to thank everyone for their purchase.

We also raffled off a metal US Flag made locally by J+M Fabrication, two military challenge coins and a DLT Trading Silver Stage knife.

This year looks to be a busy one for us especially with the covid phasing out. Be on the lookout for activities, raffles and possibly shirt sales again this year by your Veteran's Committee.

CONFERENCE THANK YOU

In February we attended a FMLA Conference at the Labor Center of The University of Iowa. My brothers and I would like to thank Local 893 for this opportunity to attend. The group had good discussions each day after the class pertaining to what they learned and compared between units.

I believe we all gained valuable knowledge to apply in all of our positions for future applications. I think all of us would recommend attending any class at the Labor Center.

What Unions Do...

Respect on the job?

Fairness?

A voice at work?

Unions are about a simple proposition. By joining together, working women and men gain strength in numbers so they can have a voice at work about what they care about. They negotiate a contract with their employer for things like a fair and safe workplace, better wages, a secure retirement and family-friendly policies such as paid sick leave and scheduling hours. They have a voice in how their jobs get done, creating a more stable, productive workforce that provides better services and products.

Always adapting to the challenges of our nation's evolving workforce, unions are meeting the needs of workers in today's flexible and nontraditional work environments. Because, no matter what type of job workers are in, by building power in unions, they can speak out for fairness for all working people in their communities and create better standards and a strong middle class across the country.

OUR EDITORIAL POLICY

TO OUR READERS: This paper is the voice of your local and international union. This is our only vehicle for bringing to you, on a regular basis, the views and actions of the leaders you elected, so you can evaluate them. Through the paper we explain union policies and show how your dues are spent.

The paper is also the voice of the members. We welcome articles from UAW members and stories about our members.

While we welcome your contributions, we ask that they be constructive. All articles should contribute positively to the welfare of this union and its members, and we will accept no attacks on any union leader or member. We will accept a thoughtful discussion of all related issues in the letters column, and reserve the right to reply to those that seem to reflect a misunderstanding of the union and its policies.

We look forward to hearing from you.
