

NATIONAL WHITE SHIRT DAY/WHITE T-SHIRT DAY

National White Shirt Day, also known as National White T-Shirt Day, commemorates the day the historic auto worker sit-down strike was resolved. February 11, 1937.

At the time of the GM sit-down strike, only foremen and supervisors were allowed to wear white shirts. The thought was if all the workers wore white shirts, they couldn't fire them all.

This year “White Shirt Day” falls on a Sunday. We are asking that you show your Union Pride by wearing a white shirt on Friday February 9, 2024.

STAND-UP in Support of the 1937 Sit-Down strikers